Appointment of Franck Aimé as Chief Human Resources Officer and Stéphane Vermersch as Secretary General

Following the recent nomination of Matthieu de Baynast as Groupe CEO, ATALIAN Group, a major provider of global services to companies, has strengthened its governance structure with the appointment of Franck Aimé as Chief Human Resources Officer and Stéphane Vermersch as Secretary General.

Franck Aimé, previously Vice President of Corporate Organisation Development and Social Dynamics for Danone Group, is appointed Chief Human Resources Officer. A graduate of Sciences Po Lyon (1988), Sciences Po Paris (1991) and INSEAD (2001-2017), Franck Aimé began his professional career at ArcelorMittal in 1998, before joining Beiersdorf Nivea in 1996. He joined Danone in 1999, where he was successively Head of Human Resources Europe, DRH Spain, DRH of the Infant Nutrition and medical nutrition unit and DRH of the Infant Nutrition Asia. He was appointed Vice President of Corporate Organisation Development and Social Dynamics in 2012.

Stéphane Vermersch, previously Deputy General Manager of Europ Assistance SA and Group Finance Director of Europ Assistance Holding, has joined the Group as Secretary General. A graduate of ESTP (1990) and ESSEC Paris (1992), he began his career in 1992 at Arthur Andersen, before joining Louis Vuitton and Hilti. He joined Europ Assistance in 2002 and was named Group Finance Director in January 2005, before being given the role of Director General of Europ Assistance for its Irish branch (EAIB).
