

PRESS RELEASE

20th of September 2016

ATALIAN, Paris-Dauphine University and the Paris-Dauphine Foundation form a partnership for professional inclusion and education.

The French Group ATALIAN, a major actor of global services provided to companies that is present in 28 countries, Paris-Dauphine University and the Paris-Dauphine Partnership Foundation, announce today the signing of a global partnership aiming to develop their relations in the field of education and the professional inclusion of students and young graduates from the Parisian university.

As part of this partnership, ATALIAN will offer internships, apprenticeship contracts, international voluntary contracts, CIFRE contracts, as well as temporary and permanent job postings to Paris-Dauphine University students and young graduates. The Group will support the various educational initiatives taken by the University, as well as its training policy. ATALIAN will also bring its financial support to the Foundations programme of actions, via the following instruments: "International mobility scholarships", "Equal Opportunities" programme and "Student Accommodation".

As far as concerns professional training, ATALIAN will be able to rely on Paris-Dauphine University according to its specific requirements.

Through this initiative, ATALIAN commits itself to transmit to young graduates its culture and values, to train them, to integrate them according to the Group's needs and to help them to develop professionally.

For Franck Julien, President of ATALIAN Holding Development & Strategy: "This global partnership with Paris-Dauphine University and the Paris-Dauphine Partnership Foundation, perfectly reflects the Human Resources policy of the Group: attract and nurture talent".

Laurent Batsch, President of the University and of the Paris Dauphine Partnership Foundation, and Fabien Blanchot, Vice-President in charge of business relations, rejoice in: "being able to form a long-term partnership with a family-run Group with an international dimension and enjoying strong growth".

About the Paris-Dauphine Partnership Foundation:

Created in 2008, the objective of the Paris-Dauphine Foundation is to support the development and the scope of the University by focusing on two fundamental themes: Excellence and Solidarity.

Since its creation and thanks to the generosity of its donors and business partners, the Foundation has collected more than 21.5 million euros of funds, which has enabled:

- 10 research chairs to produce work with recognised worldwide excellence
- 335 college students from the "Equal Opportunities" programme to enrol at Dauphine in the first year of the Bachelor's degree
- 500 students to spend a university year abroad thanks to the international mobility scholarship
- More than 30 start-ups to be accommodated and supported by the Dauphine business incubator
- A hundred students to be trained each year in the field of cultural mediation by conservationists from the largest institutions such as the Grand Palais in Paris
- The acquisition of 55 student accommodation complexes to allow students to benefit from affordable and comfortable accommodation

In 2016, the Foundation received the "Donation of confidence" label. This certification guarantees that the foundation complies with the 4 main principles of the "Donation of confidence" (Don en confiance) Charter Committee: transparency, respect for the donor, rigour and selfless management.
